

Lockout & Tag for Safety

1. What is the reason for locking out equipment?
2. What is the purpose of tagging equipment?
3. All power sources should be de-energized before being worked on? True or False
4. What type of meter is used to test if equipment is still energized?
5. Only maintenance workers need to have lockout/tagout training? True or False
6. If multiple people are working on equipment each person should apply their own lock?
True or False
7. In situations where you need to leave before your work has been completed, the best practice is to have someone else remove your lock? True or False
8. Lockout procedures only need to be created for electrical equipment?